The Bollinger Annex, with its forty new rooms makes this famous hostelry one of the best equipped in Lewiston. Mr. McGrane, the landlord, thinks the best is none to good for his friends.

Moore-Bell

Monday evening witnessed the marriage ceremony of two of Orofino's popular young people, Cally Mooers and Ethel Bell. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride, in upper town, at six o'clock, in the presence of relatives and friends. Rev. Lawson officiating. After the ceremony the guests were served with an elegant wedding supper. Many useful and ornamental presents were received by the happy couple. They will reside in the Seawson property in Orofino, where Mr. Mooers has fitted up housekeeping rooms for his bride. The Tribune extends congratulations to the young couple and wishes them a long and happy life.

Mrs. Hammond Suicides.

Mrs. Hammond, of Kootenai county, an inmate of the State Insane asylum, committed suicide yesterday morning about half past six o'clock by hanging near the river bank below the asylum. The woman got up about the usual hour of arising and succeeded in slipping out unnoticed in her bare feet, and having concealed about her person a muslin strip with which she hanged herself to a tree near the river. The suicide was afflicted with melancholia and was supposed to be improving. This is the first case of a violent death among the patients since the asylum was founded in the north.

Ice Harvest Here.

As a result of zero weather for the past week our two meat packing establishments are busy at present putting up ice. This ice is taken from the Clearwater above and below the ferry and is six to eight inches in thickness and clear as crystal. Lattrop Brothers are using their ice house on Main Avenue, while Wells & Palmer built a new house for ice storage on the back of their lot on Johnson Avenue.

Zero weather has been experienced in this section the week beginning with Saturday the temperature fell rapidly and on Monday morning the thermometer registered four below in Orofino. Reports from the Weippe section record 16 below at that point and, Red's Prairie registered 12 below while on the hill above Orofino, in the Gilbert section, the same temperature as the river, was reported. U. S. Weather Observer George Altender reports the following temperature at his place one mile above town for the week ending January 5th:

	Max.	Min.
January 1	19	1
" 2	15	10
" 3	16	0+
" 4	24	5
" 5	24	2

Have Ten Men at Work.

The Orofino Log and Timber Company has a force of ten men at work cutting the brush and timber from the right-of-way for the big flume to be built by them this winter and spring. Lumber for the flume is now being delivered by Dresser Brothers, who have the contract to furnish the entire amount necessary for its construction. E. A. Parlin has the contract to build the flume, and the company expect to have it in operation by April 1st of this year.

Order Fixing Dates for Holding Terms of Court, in and for the Second Judicial District, of the State of Idaho.

It is hereby ordered that the terms of the District Court of the Second Judicial District of Idaho, for the year 1910, be held at the following times and places:

LEWISTON, Nez Perce County
January 17, March 14, May 16, October 14.

GRANGEVILLE, Idaho County
February 14, May 28, September 1.

MOSCOW, Latah County
April 11, August 22, November 14.

Done at Chambers, at Moscow, Idaho, this December 30th, 1909.
EDGAR C. STEELE,
District Judge.

The light plant was temporarily out of commission yesterday and today, owing to running ice in the mill-race and extreme cold weather.

Mrs. DeCourcy Gives Card Party

The home of James DeCourcy was the scene Thursday night of a pleasant little card party given by Mrs. DeCourcy in honor of her husband's thirty-fifth birthday. Light refreshments were served during the evening. The invited guests were: Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wellman, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. White, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Bullock, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Buel, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. McRoberts, and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fairly.

Money to loan on improved farms. Enquire of J. M. DeCourcy, Orofino, Idaho.

Asylum Trustees Meet.

The North Idaho Insane Asylum trustees met yesterday with a full board present. They examined and allowed bills for the last quarter and let contracts for supplies for the ensuing quarter. Those securing contracts for supplies were: White Pine Trading Co., The Orofino Mercantile Co., The Orofino Trading Co., and Wellman-McRoberts Co.

Don't forget to get Princess Flour coupons with every sack of Princess Flour.

Fined for Assault.

Melvin Beal, a young man in the employ of R. W. Hawkins was arrested Monday morning on a warrant sworn out by M. F. Tobin, charging him with assault. The case came up for hearing before Judge DeCourcy at eleven o'clock Monday morning and Beal pled guilty to the charge and was fined $10 and costs.

Word was received today of the finding of old man Baum, who lives on the battle south of Rattle Snake springs, one day this week, unconscious in his cabin, and upon examination it was found he had been smothered and robbed of $50 in money. No one has as yet been openly accused of the crime, but the community has strong suspicions and arrests are likely to be made at any time.

This section was visited last night by a fall of snow which covers the ground to a depth of six inches. This heavy fall of snow, together with the snow and freezing weather of the past week, has placed the roads in excellent condition for logging and our mill men are busily at work along this line.

Dwight Wheelock, while engaged in taking a load of freight into the Weippe section last Friday was severely kicked in the face by a horse and had it not been for the ice cake on the animal's foot would have undoubtedly been killed. As it is he has a broken nose and a badly discolored face.

The Nez Perce board of County Commissioners will meet next Monday, January 10th, in regular quarterly session. Much interest attaches to this meeting as the question of calling a local option election will come up for a hearing.

The Orofino Improvement Company will petition the village council next Monday night, to have all that portion of the company's holdings lying between the Jones field and the present village limits, taken into the incorporation.

J. M. Bartlett, who has been seriously ill for the past two weeks, with typhoid fever, is reported to be rapidly improving at present. Two other members of his family sick with the same malady, are also reported much better.

The Knights of Pythias will organize a lodge here January 12th, at the Weston Lodge, thirty strong, will install the new lodge and fifteen new members will be initiated into the order.

Mrs. C. C. Smith purchased the Flatue Rowland property at the corner of 3rd street and Johnson Avenue and will move there as soon as Mrs. Rowland departs for her ranch.

Horace Noble returned Tuesday from Juliaetta, where he had accompanied Mrs. Noble, who will remain there for some weeks taking treatment at the hospital.

Chauncey Wallace, state land selector, was an arrival today from Idaho county. C. Christensen, of Prater, was an Orofino visitor today.

Mrs. Frank Edmondson is ill at her home in the city. Julius Steiner, of Denton, an Orofino visitor today.

"A case of love at first sight, eh?" "No, second sight. The first time he saw her he didn't know she was an heiress."

"Do you really love me, George?" "Didn't you give me this tie, dear?" "Yes, love. Why?" "Well, ain't I wearing it?"

"My dear, I saw a perfectly lovely girl this morning." "All right," replied her husband. "When do we meet?"—Detroit Free Press.

"What do you know about this man's reputation for truth and veracity?" "It's good. I understand he never goes fishing."—Detroit Free Press.

"So you are an optimist?" "In a certain sense," answered Mr. Dustin Stax. "Whenever I go into a deal I hope for the best of it."—Washington Star.

"You are charged with larceny. Are you guilty or not guilty?" "Not guilty, judge. I thought I was, but I've been talkin' to my lawyer, an' he's convinced me that I ain't."

Caller—Nellie, is your mother in? Nellie—Mother is out shopping. Caller—When will she return, Nellie? Nellie (calling back)—Mamma, what shall I say now?—Short Stories.

"Is Jones an optimist?" "Is he? He found a ticket enabling him to take a chance in an automobile drawing the other day and he is building a garage."—Boston Transcript.

"Who gave the bride away?" "Her little brother. He stood right up in the middle of the ceremony and yelled, 'Turrah! Poney, you've got him at last!'"—London Tit-Bits.

Mr. Henpeck—We're going to remove to the seaside, doctor. Doctor—But the climate may disagree with your wife. Mr. Henpeck—It wouldn't dare!—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Browning—What do you know about the poultry business, Greening? Is there any money in hens? Greening—You bet there is. I put all of $20 in mine last winter. —Chicago Daily News.

"After all, this is a very small world," said the ready-made philosopher. "I gather from that remark," rejoined the precise person, "that you have not been compelled to figure mine out either on steamship bills."

Washington (D. C.) Star.
Poet—Will you accept this poem at your regular rates? Editor—I guess so—it appears to contain nothing objectionable. Go to the advertising department and ask them what the rates are. How many times do you wish to have it inserted?—Cleveland Leader.

"When there is company here," said Mrs. Hewlaga, after the caller had gone, "I wish you wouldn't make such pointed remarks about women's hats!" "Pointed remarks?" exclaimed Mr. Hewlaga; "why, I never talked more bluntly in my life!"—Chicago Tribune.

He is your favor woman sufrage? She—I certainly do! He—Well, in the last election, for instance, would you have voted for Mr. Taft or Mr. Bryan? She—I never had voted for either. When I vote I'll vote for a woman or not at all!—Yonkers Statesman.

"Hallo, old man!" exclaimed Dubler, at the literary Circle reception. "It's a pleasant surprise to meet you here." "Good of you to say so, old chap," replied Brown. "Yes, you see I was afraid I wouldn't find anybody but bright and cultured people here."—Punch.

"Lady," said Meandering Mike, "you don't want to listen to my hard-luck story, do you?" "Not a bit of it!" "You relieve my mind. If you want to hear something worth while, you give 'em a chance to show what I kin do as an after-dinner speaker."—Washington Star.

Mrs. Gramercy—If you want a nice hat, why don't you get one of those tiger skins with the real head on it? Mrs. Garbo—I never could use one of those things in my hall. You don't know how imaginative my husband is every time he comes home late.—Brooklyn Life.

Stage Struck—Is the manager infatuated with you? Stage Struck—Punchy. A gentleman at the entrance just told me that you are the manager's Managery.—That's true enough, but I'm out all the same. I'm out about $200—hundred dollars on that last play I staged.—Boston Courier.

Rubber Scarce World Over.

A shortage of rubber throughout the world is creating an alarming condition in the automobile industry, and especially in the tire manufacturing branch. The present shortage is partially attributed to the demand from the tire makers, whose output this year amounts to nearly $30,000,000, with a probable production of $50,000,000 next year. The rubber tire now leads all other manufactured articles in the consumption of the best rubber gum.

CONCENTRATED FIR TREE OIL.

Pure, not a compound. Nature's natural remedy, made from the Douglas Fir Tree. Has wonderful antiseptic and healing properties. On account of its penetrating power it is quickly taken up by the blood corpuscles and carried to all parts of the body, destroying and carrying off all impurities both of the flesh and bones, leaving the system in a purified condition. It is indispensable for all affections of the nose, throat and lungs, such as colds, hoarseness, influenza, bronchitis, pneumonia, catarrhal troubles, rheumatism, eczema and all skin diseases, kidney, liver and bladder troubles; also for sprains, sore muscles and lame back. Mailed upon receipt of stamps or money order; bottles 25c, 50c and $1 sizes. Money refunded if purchaser is not more than satisfied. Agents wanted. FIGHT SOUND WOODS PRODUCTS CO., Anacortes, Wash.

"Son," called the farmer as the arms of eggs and ham came pouring through the trapdoor, "why don't you get up?"

"What's the use?" yawned the college boy, as he turned over for another nap. "Don't believe in early rising."

"Do, do, do!" Well, how about the early bird?"

"Oh, that's a chestnut. The early bird caught the early worm, and the early cat caught the bird, and the early dog caught the cat, and the early dog catcher caught the dog. So there you are. What's the use of getting up early? It don't pay."

Clip This Out.
At the first sign of rheumatic pains or backache, or a feeling of being generally run down and weakened, the following simple prescription should be used:

One ounce compound syrup Sarsaparilla; one ounce Toris compound; half pint high grade whiskey. Mix them and take a tablespoonful before each meal and at bedtime. The bottle must be well shaken each time.

Entered as second class matter September 12, 1898, at Orofino, Idaho, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

If press reports be true, Dr. Frederick Cook is not the only member of the Cook family that needs close attention. Brother William seems to be somewhat of a joshier himself.

From the high standard of citizenship selected by Mayor Gaynor to fill the various offices of the city of New York, that municipality is not apt to suffer, during his administration at least.

The Archbishop at Brussels has issued a charge, asking that prayers be offered up for the late King Leopold. Guess this must be all right, if any old reprobate ever needed 'em it certainly is Leopold.

It has just cropped out that it takes $38,000,000 a year to pay the expenses of operating the United States treasury. This is a bad state of affairs, and is likely to lead to something nearly as bad as some of the county governments of Idaho.

Eighteen prominent citizens of Pendleton, Oregon, were poisoned this week by an avaricious bootlegger, who mixed wood alcohol with his "red eye" to the discount of the aforesaid prominent citizens. Another argument against local option.

For the sake of efficiency in state or governmental service we would suggest that the power of recommending be taken away from our state and national officials. Let it be removed entirely from the province of a congressman or a United States senator to recommend appointees to the various offices, and these same officials will no doubt render increased service to the public. As the case now stands, a congressman or a senator's time is much taken up in investigating, balancing and weighing chances of this or that appointment, when the state or nation should have his services unimpaired. Many a good, capable official has gone down and out in trying to solve the tangles of federal appointments. Let those officials not under civil service rules be selected as to fitness by a commission that has no legislative functions and no power to impair the nation's service except as to bad appointments.

A fight between Brady and O'Neil would be a fight between the cities and towns on one side and the rural districts on the other. Brady cannot hope to carry the cities and towns, which will vote overwhelmingly against him owing to his vigorous anti-saloon policy. O'Neil, on the other hand, while he is for local option because it was represented in his party platform, does not believe to any great extent in the enforcement of the law. Brady will draw largely from the rural population which seems to be almost a unit against the saloons. The O'Neil vote in the cities would be the easiest gotten out and in a measure would counter-balance the Brady vote, which is represented largely by the local option petitions now being circulated. Those who make pretensions, at stating public opinion estimate the vote likely to be cast as represented by the petition at 60 per cent. If the local optionists get out but 60 per cent of those signing petitions and the cities get out practically all their votes the contest will be a battle royal and well worth the seeing.

The carrying out this week of the sentence of Chas. Morse, the New York Banker, convicted more than a year ago of violating the National Banking laws and under sentence of 15 years in a federal prison, will have a salutary effect on the nation. He may not be any guiltier than dozens of others, engaged in like vocation, but he was convicted after a fair and impartial trial and no contradiction of facts essential to his indictment. His wail, therefore, to the people, at this time, comes with bad grace, as his crime represented the worst form of violation of our National banking laws, made for the purpose of safe-guarding the people's earnings from the greedy speculator. In the eyes of the ration his sentence is just, and millionaire as he is, he is no better nor no worse, than any other citizen, committing a like crime in the eyes of the law. His punishment, at this time, when so many tongues are preaching anarchy as a remedy for existing evils, cannot but have a good effect upon the morale of the nation. Enforcement of existing laws, under the constitution, will do away with much of the discontent existing at the present time against popular government.

Brady VS. O'Neil

Hon. B. F. O'Neil, chairman of the republican state central committee, was in the city today, but refused to talk politics, although urged to make a statement of his position with regard to the gubernatorial nomination. He has more political friends in northern Idaho than any other public man who is mentioned for the nomination as a candidate for governor, and these supporters are urging him to come out in the open and announce his candidacy, but he has not so far done so. He has at all times been a warm friend of Kootenai county, and would make a strong race for the nomination so far as this county is concerned, and should be become a candidate, there is no use attempting to disguise the fact that he would lead all others by heavy odds.—Coeur d'Alene Press.

"Idaho Falls is growing steadily," stated Dr. Benjamin M. Brookfield, member of the state board of dental examiners, who arrived in the city yesterday from the metropolis of Bingham county. "Many business houses and homes are being erected even at this time of the year, and business was never better. Large bands of sheep are being fed in Bingham county. The deep snow absolutely prevents grazing of any sort and hay is in demand. In fact I noticed all along the line a great many railroad cars being used for hauling in baled hay for feeding purposes."

When asked concerning the political situation in Bingham county, the doctor smiled and said: "Well, I am afraid I am not what you would call a politician, but you know we talk politics more or less all the time down there. My practice is among country people as well as city residents, and I not only come in contact with many prominent in our local politics, but a great many other people, the people, and especially those from the country, are well satisfied with the state administration. The calling together of the county commissioners was a good idea and I think we all realize that an attempt is being made to better the tax situation. I own a little property myself and I know how I feel about it."

"Governor Brady is steadily growing in favor with our people and we are not figuring on anything but a second term for him, if he keeps up his good work. "By the way," said the doctor, "I want to say a good word for the manner in which our state penitentiary is conducted. Warder Snook certainly knows his business. I have had occasion to notice this, for you know we try out our applicants for diplomas on the convicts."

Dr. Brookfield is one of the most prominent professional men of southeastern Idaho and took his place on the dental board this year. He is a son-in-law of Ed Colman, mayor of Idaho Falls.—Boise Statesman.

Wells Bench Items.

Miss Eva Stenerson left Saturday to visit friends in Spokane.
Myron Frear and his son, Charley, were Orofino visitors Tuesday.
Four above zero has been the coldest registered on the bench.
J. M. Saunders and Frank Mooers each butchered a 350 pound hog Monday.
Lewis Bashaw has quit work at the asylum after more than a year and a half stay.

Miss Eva Stenerson had the misfortune to lose a valuable gold necklace on New Year's eve, between Canyon creek and Orofino.

The Bashaw brothers have taken a contract to cut cordwood for the Orofino Log & Lumber Co., and are engaged at present in building some cabins in which to camp while doing the work.

Change of Venue is Granted.

Judge P. S. Dietrich, on January 14th, handed down decisions overruling demurrers to the complaint in the case of the United States vs. W. F. Kettenbach and C. W. Keator, charged with conspiracy to defraud the government out of north Idaho timber lands, granting the defendants a change of venue to Boise where they will be tried commencing February 15. The action of the court in removing the case from the northern district for the state of Idaho was based on a showing of prejudice resulting from publications in Lewiston and Spokane papers which are said to have had a large circulation in that territory.

Judge Dietrich, in setting the case for trial, announced that the prosecution would have until January 20 to determine under which indictment the defendants are to be tried.

Demurrers to pleas in statement filed by the defendants were sustained in each particular, leaving all indictments valid and under any of which the government may elect to proceed.

Enumerators' Test Easy.

WASHINGTON, D. C. December 27, 1909.—Any person of good judgment, who has received an ordinary common school education, can readily and easily pass the test to be given applicants for enumerators' places on Saturday, Feb. 5th, the date finally set by U. S. Census Director Durand, according to an announcement from the Census Bureau today. This will be a comforting assurance to the several hundred thousands who are believed to be contemplating for the places.

It is emphatically stated at the bureau that the test will be an eminently reasonable and practical one, similar to that applied to the applicants at the Twelfth Census. It will consist of filling out a sample schedule of population from description, in narrative form, of typical families; and in the case of enumerators whose work will be in the rural districts, they will be called upon to fill-out an additional sample schedule of agriculture, from information furnished by the Census Bureau.

All persons, whether women or men, who may desire to become Census enumerators must be citizens of the United States; residents of the supervisor's district for which they wish to be appointed; must not be less than 18 nor more than 70 years of age; must be physically able to do the work; must be trustworthy, honest and of good habits; must have at least an ordinary education and must be able to write plainly and with reasonable rapidity.

Those who can comply with these requirements are invited to put in their applications, as there will be at least 85,000 enumerators' places to be filled by the middle of March in preparation for the enumeration beginning April 15th.

Application forms, with full instructions for filling-in, and complete information concerning the test and the method of appointment, can be secured by writing to the supervisor of Census for the supervisor's district in which the applicant lives. All applications, properly filled-in, must be filed with the supervisor not later than January 25th as any received after that date cannot be considered.

WRECK IN MONTANA

ENGINE STALLED IN SNOW HIT BY PASSENGER TRAIN.

Three Men Are Killed and Two Injured and Train Burned Up—Accident Occurs on Billings Line Near Oxford Station, 30 Miles East of Judith Gap.

Great Falls, Mont., Jan. 2. — In a blinding snowstorm, which had stalled a Great Northern freight engine and prevented the engines of an incoming Burlington around passenger train from seeing the warning signal lantern of the freight, one of the worst wrecks ever known on the Butte division occurred near Oxford Station, on the Billings line, about 30 miles east of Judith Gap.

As a result three men were killed, 10 were injured and the greater portion of the passenger train was consumed by fire.

The dead are: Homer Styles of Judith Gap, fireman on the passenger engine; Mail Clerk Augustus L. Gibson, of this city; an unknown baggage man, incinerated in his car.

The injured are: Engineer Ford Potts, Great Falls, head and knee hurt and legs swollen; Conductor J. C. O'Neill, Great Falls, back hurt; brakeman W. F. Freeman, face bruised and neck hurt; brakeman Leo Jordan, Great Falls, head and fingers frozen while flagging off the passenger the incident are: M. J. Helms, Commandante, Montrose, head and neck skinned; W. P. Wilson, Broadview, Mont., head, hip and back injured; W. R. Williams, Washoe, Mont., face and knee bruised; J. W. Peirce, Red Lodge, Mont., shoulder dislocated and back hurt; Joe Williams, Red Lodge, lower limbs bruised; Campbell Wall, news agent, Seattle, leg hurt.

Engine stalled in snow.

Engine 1031 of an eastbound freight had left its train at Franklin on account of repairs needed and had started back to Judith Gap with the tender in front and the engine behind. At Oxford the engine became stalled in the heavy snow and the engineer and conductor went ahead to dig against the incoming Burlington passenger bound from Seattle to Kansas City.

The train was about seven hours late and the engineer was pushing her through the storm in keep from falling farther behind. At the blinding snow storm he failed to see the lantern of the freight or the light on the stalled locomotive and dashed headlong into the obstruction.

The engine was hurled to one side of the track, instantly killing the fireman and injuring the engineer, who was scooped by coupling steam. The tender telescoped with the mail car and Mail Clerk Gibson, the only occupant of the car, was killed.

Detour from Any Station.

The three trains following were derailed and the passengers hurried from their seats. The tender of the freight engine was overturned, but the locomotive and engine remained on the track and the impact of the collision started them down the grade and they traveled for a long distance from the wreck. Some time after the accident the wreckage caught fire and the baggage and mail cars, which were struck and were entirely consumed.

The sleepers and dining car had remained on the track and were saved. In the fire the mail clerk, victim of the wreck, was incinerated.

MONTANA NEWS.

One of Kalispell's oldest buildings, which has for 19 years stood on Main street, was destroyed by fire recently.

Disassembling every part of the old tele phone system that has served Kalispell for 12 years, the Northern Idaho & Montana Power company will, within a few weeks, establish service on a modern light signal system, adapted to 1,000 phones.

It is said that the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad company will make public an announcement which will next fortnight of the new line, which will pass through Lewistown.

The Butte Miners' union, by an overwhelming vote, decided to keep hands off the withdrawal of a strike at Great Falls. As a result of the strike at Great Falls and Montana smelter at Great Falls and that company's mine in Butte, employing about 4,000 men, are idle.

They Stop Making Liquor.

The new law against the manufacture of intoxicants became effective January 1, and for the first time in the history of Tennessee it is the duty of the law to manufacture liquors in the state.

The peasant was overjoyed when he discovered that his goose was laying golden eggs. For it was winter. "I can paint them up and sell them for ten cents," he exclaimed, "and I can't wait until the weather is better before I'm—Puck."

BANK ROBBERS KILLED.

One of Their Number Talks Too Freely of Plot and Others Are Notified. Oklahoma City, Okla. — Five men who intended to rob three banks and the postoffice at Harrah, Okla., ran into a power headed by United States Marshal Jack Abernathy. As a result two bank robbers are dead, one is in jail at Guthrie, wounded, and two suspects are in jail here.

Frank Quinn was shot down in a fight with the posse and instantly killed. He lived at Atchison, Kan., and was the son of a wealthy mother, Frank Carpenter, another robber, was wounded in the fight and died later in the jail here. C. D. Dicks, the third leader, was only slightly hurt.

The robbery was well planned, but Carpenter made the mistake of telling a number of people of the plot. In this way postoffice inspectors learned of the affair.

MAKE TWO FLEETS OF ONE.

Atlantic and Pacific Vessels Under Separate Commands.

On account of the growing importance of American interests in the far east and the difficulty of assembling the whole fleet as now constituted, the navy department has decided to divide the Pacific fleet into two separate fleets to be known as the Atlantic fleet and Pacific fleet.

In January, 1907, the old Asiatic fleet was merged into the Pacific fleet and made the first squadron thereof. To-day's action reverses the old order. The commander-in-chief of the new Asiatic fleet will be Rear Admiral John Hubbard, who will relieve Rear Admiral Hart in a few days at Yokohama. Rear Admiral Hart will relieve Rear Admiral Beak as commander-in-chief of the Pacific fleet in February.

"The Land of Nod."

"The Land of Nod," a musical extravaganza in a prologue and two acts, by Adams, Hough & Howard, and presented by Samuel E. Kork, will be the attraction at the Spokane theater all this week.

Have seats reserved by mail, sending a deposit to manager and stating address, where you desire seats, naming attraction and date.

MARIE CAHILL.

It is said that "The Boys and Betty," Miss Marie Cahill has secured a musical play of an entirely different character from that which the term usually signifies. The story is a consistently plain one and were it not that Silvio Hain had composed some really excellent music for it, there can be no question that it might be played as a straight comedy. In fact, Manager Daniel V. Arthur had strongly contemplated before its production of doing just the thing. It was eventually decided, however, that the music, the pretty girls and the gorgeous dresses would undoubtedly be a wise one. Miss Cahill and "The Boys and Betty" will be seen at the Auditorium next Friday and Saturday.

OREGON SQUIDS.

At Oswego recently a man claiming to be a postoffice inspector entered the postoffice and was given the privilege of going through the mail. During the temporary absence of the postmaster he secured between $200 and $300 in cash and disappeared. There is no clue.

GOOD ROADS PARAMOUNT.

No Other One Issue So Important To Farmers And Town Dwellers In Northwest States.

The great inland Empire, the pride of every resident of its vast domain, growing daily in material wealth and commercial importance, is sadly deficient in the one thing necessary to give it a substantial permanency. Good roads, permanent, possible highways, giving uninterrupted communication between the farm, the village and the cities, have always been the mark of a progressive, prosperous and enlightened community. It is not necessary that these roads be built of macadam. Gravel and earth roads are sufficient in many localities where the nature of the soil and the natural drainage permit their use, but it is decidedly necessary that they be built scientifically.

The time has arrived when the farmers, fruit growers and all other agriculturists as well as the city and small town residents, must take this matter over in plain words. A practical working plan whereby the roads will actually be built, is the only salvation for the development of the landless natural resources of this northwestern country.

The states of Washington, Montana, Idaho, and Oregon and the southern portion of British Columbia could furnish road building material for the entire United States. There is within easy reach of any square mile of this territory, material for the building of substantial roads which will be a dividend paying investment for years and years to come.

The relation of the good roads problem will not be reached until the man who owns the land along which the road runs gets his neighbors interested—for their own benefit—until this small group federates with a township organization and it is in turn with the county, state and nation.

They will come the knowledge of the value of scientific advice, the services of the specialist who understands the economic values of the material at hand, the establishment of grades, drainage, the preservation of the scenic surroundings, the utilization of every natural and artificial advantage in the construction of a permanent highway in which the individual land owner will feel a proprietary interest.

MAKING CHICKENS PAY.

J. R. Crosswhite Tells How He Made A Success.

"Working for eggs means very little and great possibilities of profit, so long as to color and appearance of the fowl does not count much for practical purposes. If we are after eggs it pays to go after eggs in a business-like manner."

John R. Crosswhite, of Deer Park, Wash., one of the most successful poultrymen in the inland Empire and the Pacific Northwest, takes up the poultry situation. He believes in producing eggs rather than broilers and he should avoid the former, and let the experienced man or woman there is less profit in the latter than in eggs. He breeds fowls that produce eggs, and in view of the fact that the price ranged from 25 to 60 cents a dozen in Spokane in 1909, during which time the supply was never equal to the demand, he expects to provide for Shrikage.

Evaporated fruits shrink a good deal, and if a grocer expects to be able to sell as many pounds as he buys he is very apt to find himself mistaken, says the Grocers' Magazine.

The manager of one of Boston's largest grocery stores, in discussing this matter the other day, said, "If I always found that my evaporated fruits cost me 15 cents a pound, I would estimate, and probably 1 cent would be safe. If every grocer added 1 cent a pound to the cost, calling the increased figure the actual cost, he would be safe. There is a shrinkage and there is also over-weighing, the price of which can hardly be added. If grocers were to be able to avoid a cent a pound to the cost to provide for shrinkage they would not be so willing to sell produce costing 7 cents for 10 cents, for it is practically selling them for what they cost."

Noted Boat Scrap Iron.

The Pacific Mail Steamship company's liner, City of Peking, once the pride of the Pacific ocean and the vessel which carried the first California Volunteers to Manila in 1898, to participate in the closing scenes of the war with Spain, was sold to a shipping firm recently and will be broken up for scrap iron. It is reported that the old liner brought but $15,000.

"Men will want protection."

railroad construction is ceased, in eight years.

Most of the mileage was constructed in new territory. A large portion of the new construction was in the Pacific northwest, where the Harman, Hill and the St. Paul interests engaged in competition for new territory.

FARM PRODUCTS SHOW INCREASE.

Gain of 75 Per Cent Is Shown on $11,000,000 Farms in Last Ten Years.

Four hundred and four million dollars is the value of the products of 211,000 farms in Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Montana in 1909, a gain of 75 per cent since 1900 and as much larger than in 1908. The assets of the farmers are practically double those of 1904, their debts are considerably less, while the surplus is greater than ever before in the history of the country. The number of farms and the wealth production in the four states are approximately as follows:

State	Farms	Production
Washington	56,000	$104,000,000
Oregon	46,000	72,000,000
Idaho	75,000	114,000,000
Montana	30,000	114,000,000

Totals—211,000 $404,000,000

The foregoing figures show there is need of more farmers in the northwest and that millions of acres of lands now idle could be put under cultivation on a substantial revenue-paying basis. There are many who believe that the days of the bonanza farms are numbered, which means that with smaller holdings there will be more intensive farming, and, as a consequence, larger acre crops.

The farm products of 1909 in the inland Empire, taking in Eastern Washington and Oregon, north and Central Idaho and Western Montana, are valued at $110,000,000, with East of Washington furnishing about 38 per cent of the whole. A normal apple crop at present price, instead of a yield ranging from 15 to 40 per cent, would have placed the figures at approximately $117,000,000, against $90,000,000 in 1908.

Wheat, Big Factor.

Wheat, of course, is the big factor in the four states producing more than 75,000,000 bushels, of which 35,700,000 bushels is credited to 13 counties in eastern Washington, 16,377,000 bushels for Oregon, 14,855,000 bushels for Idaho and the rest for Montana. The other farm products entering into the computation are fruit, oats, barley, rye, hay, potatoes, garden products, live stock, dairy products and poultry and eggs.

The foregoing figures become important in the development of the western country when it is known that in many instances the products of the other farming states are not as valuable as those in the quarter mentioned, which, less than a quarter of a century ago, were considered to be largely worthless lands. It means, too, that with the influx of population and outside capital for development purposes there will be more farms and a greater wheat production as a natural result.

There are 6,741,000 farms, or about 1,000,000 more than in 1899 in the United States today, and the value of the products for 1909 is placed at $2,400,000,000, with farm assets of $12,000,000,000. This shows that fully an eighth of the population of the country is engaged in the various forms of agriculture.

It is believed by many that the result of the country life and back-to-the-land movement will be to raise the percentage of farmers to 40 in a few years. Now placing the nation in the position of an exporter and raising the wealth production to the 11 figure net.

Mining Notes.

Eighty feet of shaft work has been finished under the 300-foot shaft contract let on the Hypotheek mine near Elgin, Idaho. The shaft is down now to the 200-foot level. When 1,000 feet of depth is attained a 75-foot contract will be run to tap the vein. The Hypotheek is a copper property in which the Indian nation, the latest contract is turning to lead at depth.

Great Invention.

Following the filing of incorporation papers of the Railway Improvement company, capitalized at $200,000, at Olympia, announcement is made that the Northern Pacific railroad will give an immediate trial test to the Coleman improved flooper, the latest patented invention of Charles S. Coleman of Spokane, president of the new company.

Saves Bidders.

The Coleman flooper consists of an improved joint between the flue and the boiler, so constructed as to prevent all leaking of the flue into the boiler, and is believed will prove a saving in boilers on locomotive and stationary engines. The inventor of the new flooper declares that the invention will mean a saving of from $80,000 to $75,000 annually in the 60,000 locomotives being operated in America.

Progress of Railroads.

The railroads of the United States constructed a total of 3,748 miles of new lines in the present year, which is an increase of 534 miles when compared with the year previous. With an exception of 1908, the present year has proved the most successful in the history of the industry.

IS THE MONEY KING

J. P. MORGAN HEADS TRUST OF FINANCIAL INTERESTS.

Financial Interests of Wall Street in Combine Last Three Months—Simply a "Community of Interests"—Its Power Is Tremendous—Could Cripple Financial Operations of Government.

So close have become the alliances of leading financial interests in Wall Street during the last three months that almost absolute control of the country's financial affairs is now centralized in the hands of a very few men, who are acting in concert.

A money trust has come into existence with J. P. Morgan at its head, the most gigantic combination of capital in the world. There is no concrete, definite organization in this latest trust, no legal incorporation, no elected directors, no list of stockholders. To use a descriptive phrase of the financial world, it is simply a "community of interest."

Assets of three financial companies alone controlled by the group aggregate considerably more than $1,000,000,000. Here are some of the things the trust could do:

It could call $200,000,000 of loans over night and ruin any adversary.

It could reduce credits to such a degree as to cause extreme stringency and great commercial distress.

It could tie up cash holdings of New York banks by demanding certification of checks for enormous amounts.

It could deplete bank reserves in New York by causing shipments of cash to any part of the country.

It could reduce the money rate of interest almost what it chose, from 2 per cent to 100 per cent on all call loans.

It could cripple financial operations of the government by refusing to purchase any bond issue.

It could dictate financial operations of great railway systems and expanding industrial concerns.

It could and does dictate terms and conditions of every company promotion that is important enough to be financed in Wall street.

Canada Claims the Most.

In proportion to population Canada is building more miles of railroad than the United States. Canada's entire railroad mileage is now 219,000, which is one mile for every 200 inhabitants, as compared with one mile to every 311 inhabitants in the United States.

In 1867 in all Canada there were just 2,374 miles of railroad tracks. There have been constructed in 1909 400 miles under construction or contract reach twice as many miles of track as there were in Canada in 1868, or 4,377 miles.

Items From Dent.

The settlers of 38-3 East met 50 strong at the school house last evening to watch the old year out and the new in, and incidentally to transact a little business. The business part of the meeting was receiving the report of the judges appointed to select a name for their town from a list of names handed in to Dr. F. D. Watts who offered a prize of $5.00 for the name chosen from the list by the judges. Before hearing the report of the judges a fine program was rendered. It was given in its entirety, no absentees.

Especially fine was the part rendered by the school. Each one deserves special mention, but space forbids it. After two hours session the judges reported that they were unable to agree on any one name, and asked the company to help them out, by allowing them to put three names on the blackboard and the name receiving the highest number of votes to be declared their choice. It was so ordered and Alwaukie, Forest City and Woodland was placed on the board. Woodland, receiving the greatest number, was chosen. There being another "Woodland" in the state, it cannot be used, according to the rules governing the contest, so we are still without a name. But never mind "Miss Orofino," for we will soon get one, and then we want to be introduced. At 12:15 A. M. 1910 refreshments were served by the ladies, and after that the program.

Harte Williams; the chorus, "Goodbye my Lover Goodbye."

On to 2:30 a social was held. It was an enjoyable evening, profitably spent and much heretofore unknown talent was brought to light.

Here's a happy new year to the erstwhile "squatters" on 38-3 East. They are a jolly set.

New Editorial Management.

The Times is pleased to announce that as part of its plans for improvement during the coming year that it has secured the services of C. A. Foreman of Lewiston as editor and manager. Mr. Foreman has for many years been identified with the field of progressive journalism in Idaho and his abilities in this line are well known throughout the state, and the Times feels justified in saying that under his management the paper will be enabled to make the improvements it has had in contemplation for some time, but which have been deferred because other business was more pressing.

There is no reason why the most prosperous and promising mining district in the United States might not also boast of a newspaper of wide influence. The Times aspires to occupy such a field, and will, during the new year, begin a series of improvements looking toward that end. Every department of the paper will be strengthened and its equipment increased to meet the demands. The Times will begin the new year with the resolve that there is nothing too good for its patrons and will seek in all lines to justify the assertion.—Wallace Times.
