Assessor Bashor is going after delinquent taxes red-eyed. Personal property is being seized and sold in cases where the delinquent does not own real estate. Assessors heretofore have never enforced the law in relation to the seizure of personal property for taxes. As a result of their negligence the books of the assessor's office show an accumulation of about $75,000 of delinquent taxes.

The Lewiston commercial club has interested itself in the railroad situation and will use its efforts to induce the transportation people to build the Lewiston-Riparia extension. The "community of interest" principle will be worked for all it is worth. A committee of the club is now drawing up a statement of facts for transmission to headquarters.

Probably the most remarkable election ever held in the United States was that for seven municipal officers at Endora, Mississippi, recently. Only eight votes were cast, seven of them by the candidates who were elected, and six of those candidates were judges and commissioners of the elections.

Tuesday was the hottest day of the season—thermometers in Peck registered 100 in the shade. Wednesday was somewhat cloudy and considerably cooler, and the weather since has not been unpleasantly warm.

Opal Sperry's horse fell with her as she was riding through town Thursday. Opal was considerably bruised and shaken up but luckily was not otherwise hurt.

Wonder if Sampson would have been so eager to shoulder the blame if the battle of Santiago had been lost, as he is to rob Schley of the glory of winning it?

Floyd Walker, the drayman, is now the possessor of a handsome new hack, with which he will hereafter convey passengers to and from the depot.
